OSLC WEEKLY-November 6, 2022

"Welcome one another, therefore, just as Christ has welcomed you, to the glory of God." Romans 15:7

We welcome new visitors and old friends, long-time Lutherans, Christians from every tradition, and people new to faith. To those who have no church home, want to follow Christ, have doubts, do not believe, you are welcome here. Regardless of age, color, culture, sexual orientation, gender identity, socioeconomic status, marital status, abilities or challenges, join us, you are welcome here. You are welcome to worship, to celebrate and sorrow, to rejoice and recover. This is a place where lives are made new.

ORLAND THORESON MEMORIAL GIFT

Thank you to the Thoreson family for a gift to our partnership with the Iambi Lutheran Hospital Palliative Care Program in Tanzania. This gift was made in memory of Orland Thoreson. As we heard on Fair Trade Sunday, our financial partnership with ILH makes a world of difference in the lives of many people, including staff, volunteers, and patients. Thank you again to the Thoreson family; this memorial gift is an excellent witness to the love of God that Orland so embodied!

PASTOR BEN'S BIBLE STUDY

Fellowship Hall

No sewing skills are needed.
If you can tie a knot, you can help.
Everyone is invited to help out.

PRAYER CHAIN An invitation ~ We know that prayer is one of the powerful tools we have to lift up and support others. Here is how it works, the person (or family member/friend) requesting prayers calls or sends an email with their request to me. I send it out to the prayer chain distribution list via email and the praying starts!

Gratefully, OSLC has a very active prayer chain with 26 members. If you are not a member, we would like to invite you to join us. All are welcome (children, young adults, and senior saints)!

If you would like to be added to the prayer chain distribution list, please send an email to ktzahasky4@gmail.com or call 254-7894 and leave me a message. Thank-you Katie Zahasky

COFFEE FELLOWSHIP...can this continue?

We hope to get 8 teams to cover the coffee prep. This means that you would only have to make coffee & provide treat (3 dozen, purchased or homemade) every 8 weeks.

Clean up would be done on Monday morning by our custodian.

We're hoping to get enough people to say yes to team you up with another couple or person. Can we count on you to help out with this? If yes, contact Joanne in the church office.

Please note: If we cannot fill the teams, there will be no coffee on some Sundays.

Crafting at OSLC

Calling all crafters! Do you scrapbook, quilt, knit, draw, sculpt, whittle, or do other crafty things? Join us on the first Saturday morning of every month, from 9-11 AM, in the Fellowship Hall. Bring your own supplies for your craft and gather with some other crafters to work on your projects and enjoy some fellowship. This is not meant to be a class, just a time to work on individual projects with members of your church family. Hope to see you there! The next gathering is TBA.

THANK YOU for all the cards, birthday wishes, and attendance at my 100th birthday Open House. I enjoyed seeing and visiting with you. How fun to hear all of you singing Happy Birthday to me at the church service.

Youth News

The weekend mission trip will be December 3-4. We will leave church at 7:15 Saturday morning and be back about 1 on Sunday afternoon. We will serve at three places, dine and worship together! I am very excited for the new opportunities this year! It is always neat to see the different places we can serve The Lord and learn about others. At this time, it is open to all high school youth. This event will be free to the youth. See Cassie for more details and to sign up.
