1 Kings 19:1-16

¹Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and how he had killed all the prophets with the sword. ²Then Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, "So may the gods do to me, and more also, if I do not make your life like the life of one of them by this time tomorrow." ³Then he was afraid; he got up and fled for his life, and came to Beer-sheba, which belongs to Judah; he left his servant there. ⁴But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a solitary broom tree. He asked that he might die: "It is enough; now, O LORD, take away my life, for I am no better than my ancestors." ⁵Then he lay down under the broom tree and fell asleep. Suddenly an angel touched him and said to him, "Get up and eat." ⁶He looked, and there at his head was a cake baked on hot stones, and a jar of water. He ate and drank, and lay down again. ⁷The angel of the LORD came a second time, touched him, and said, "Get up and eat, otherwise the journey will be too much for you." ⁸He got up, and ate and drank; then he went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Horeb the mount of God. ⁹At that place he came to a cave, and spent the night there. Then the word of the LORD came to him, saying, "What are you doing here, Elijah?" ¹⁰He answered, "I have been very zealous for the LORD, the God of hosts; for the Israelites have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I alone am left, and they are seeking my life, to take it away." ¹¹He said, "Go out and stand on the mountain before the LORD, for the LORD is about to pass by." Now there was a great wind, so strong that it was splitting mountains and breaking rocks in pieces before the LORD, but the LORD was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake; ¹²and after the earthquake a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire; and after the fire a sound of sheer silence. ¹³When Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood at the entrance of the cave. Then there came a voice to him that said, "What are you doing here, Elijah?" ¹⁴He answered, "I have been very zealous for the LORD, the God of hosts; for the Israelites have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I alone am left, and they are seeking my life, to take it away." ¹⁵Then the LORD said to him, "Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus; when you arrive, you shall anoint Hazael as king over Aram. ¹⁶Also you shall anoint Jehu son of Nimshi as king over Israel; and you shall anoint Elisha son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah as prophet in your place.

I have Good news.

As many of you might know, last fall I was diagnosed with Myelodysplastic Syndrome (MDS) and Cold Agglutinin Disease {CAD}. I have gone through numerous tests, rounds of chemo, 4 bone marrow biopsies, 2 blood transfusions. The only cure for both blood diseases is a bone marrow transplant. They have found a donor for me with a 10/10 match and my transplant is scheduled for August 8th. All I know about the donor right now is they are from the United States and their blood type is O positive which is what I will eventually change to from my B positive. My harsh chemo will start on August 1st for 6 days and yes, I will lose my hair. I want to thank my church family for all the prayers, cards, food, books, the singing trio, online services and words of support over the last year. You don't know how much this has meant to me and helped me. I am so grateful and blessed for this donor, for living next to Mayo Clinic and their great staff, and for my supporting family. My son Jeremy will be my caregiver for the next 100 days 24/7. My daughter Kristi will be helping me with a CaringBridge site that we will be setting up in the next week or so before August 1st so I can keep everyone informed as to how things are going. Last but not least I am so thankful for my Lord and Savior that has been with me on this journey and will continue to be with me to the end of this journey. God bless all of you and keep the prayers coming.

Pam Shulze
